

HOME

Flying Hawk Productions is an online resource for art, music, jewelry, books, crafts and more. Featuring a variety of genres such as Native American, Worship, Jazz, Country and eclectic the music of the artists of Flying Hawk Productions provides the listener with an experience that is fresh and new. Fine art, jewelry and Native crafts convey an inspirational and anointed message and are a deep expression of the artist's faith.

WIND OF THE SPIRIT

TRACK LISTING

Listen Now!

ENDORSEMENTS

"Spirit wind means prayer to the Native people; a way of reaching the Creator through the "Great Spirit" of the Lord. This music takes you to a very sacred place, a place of vision."

Dr. Negiel Au wau day Bigpond
President and Co-founder Two Rivers Native American Training Center
Dr. Bigpond is Full-blood Euchre (Yuchi) Indian and a fourth generation minister.

TOM AND KATHLEEN WILLIAMSON

Tom and Kathleen Williamson are singer/songwriters from Bixby, Oklahoma. As ordained ministers they lead as prophetic psalmists, delivering a unique sound that is fresh and new for today. Speaking prophetically through song and lifting you into the presence of the Creator they usher in a sound that resonates deep in the spirit. Every appearance by Tom and Kathleen births a song delivered straight from the Lord, captivating audiences and congregations as they realize the Lord has delivered a new song specifically for them.

Tom and Kathleen's musical background is diverse crossing the gambit from country to classical to rock to blues to popular music. They have played and performed with some of the biggest names in the music industry. Today the Williamson's serve and minister through their music honoring the Holy Spirit.

VISION STATEMENT:

"To release the songs and sounds In Spirit and In Truth that will call the Bride from all the nations to awaken and prepare for the coming of The Groom."

The views expressed by the artists on this web site are not necessarily shared by all artists and staff of Flying Hawk Productions.